THE BETHANIAN
BETHANY COLLEGE
BETHANY, WEST VIRGINIA

Dear Class of 1964:

It is my unique privilege in this, my last editorial assignment, to present you, the Class of 1964, your one lasting memento of your years at Bethany College. We are on the brink of a new life; never again will we climb the hill to Old Main for class. We are now on our own in the world, having a common heritage and facing even steeper hills to climb in the years to come.

This year, to keep up with an ever expanding Bethany, we have expanded the size of the Bethanian to the more familiar "university size" book. It has been the effort of the staff and myself to present to you bigger and better coverage of this, our last year at Bethany, by the use of the larger yearbook size.

We have shared four happy years--perhaps they were too happy. The time has come when we must depart for a new life. As we go, a part of us remains, but in return we take with us many memories -- some sad, many happy, but all beloved. None of us will ever forget our days as undergraduates, days in which we learned to live and love our Alma Mater.

As we follow our various roads through life, let us never feel alone. We always have a home at old Bethany, a place which we love and to which we can return to see the old tradition of which we are a part.

In parting, I wish you all the best of luck in the years to come.

Sincerely,

W. A. Bliss III
Editor-in-Chief

Sorority

Shortly after the start of school Sorority Rush starts and with it the many rush parties and "snow jobs."

For several weeks the various sororities hold rush under the auspices of the Panhellenic Council.

Coke parties and room visitations before the dinner hour become a daily ritual and song practice for the serenades is also in order.

Skits are one of the highlights of rush.

Rush

As the end of rush nears the sororities panic and go like mad for the last couple of days to sew up the last few girls.

Finally the big night arrives and the girls leave the parties to go back to Phillips Hall to make their decisions.

If the freshmen are lucky they get the sorority of their preference and . . . if the sorority is lucky they get the girls of their choice.

For the first time the Inter-Fraternity Council had early rush this year. Freshmen did not have to have the 2.0 grade average to pledge.

The remainder of rush however remained the same with informal rush parties scheduled three days a week. Following the informal rush parties Preferential Week was held, giving the freshmen a chance to make up their minds as to which fraternity they wished to rush.

Sunny Skies Help to

HOMECOMING QUEEN MARGIE KOVAC looks radiant as she poses for our photographer before the game.

A warm and sunny fall day was the setting for the 1963 Homecoming activities at Bethany. Alumni flocked by the hundreds to see what they had hoped to be the first Homecoming victory in seven years. This was a dream that was never to be realized as the Bisons lost to Washington and Jefferson 20 to 14.

All was not lost however, as alumni, students and faculty turned out to observe the day's activities from start to finish.

The Penn Hills High School band led the parade from the Bee Hive to Rine Field followed by floats representing fraternities, sororities, independents and freshmen preceding the game. Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity were judged the best sorority and fraternity floats and the freshmen received the award for best "over-all" float.

The day was climaxed by the crowning of Miss Margie Kovac as Homecoming Queen at the dance held in the Pine Room at Oglebay Park. Her court was comprised of Jane Bolton, Pat Collins, Linda Pifer and Sara Pendleton.

THE MOO MOO MOO and the cheerleaders seem to be enjoying the parade.

Christian Living Emphasis Week is an effort to promote discussion on important ethical and moral issues in the context of religious devotion.

This year's C.L.E.W. discussions were held from November 20 through November 22. The theme of the discussion was "Sex and the Religious Life."

Under the C.L.E.W. co-chairmen, Jeannie Mallet and Doug Spangler, and the Executive Committee, a coordinated program of activities was presented on campus.

Guest lecturers, Dr. Mildred Bateman, Director of the West Virginia Department of Mental Health, Dr. Randolph C. Miller, Professor at Yale University, and Father Louis J. Nene, O.J., Director of the Family Life Department of the Pittsburgh Diocese, present various topics.

Banquets, bull sessions, and book displays were a vital part of the three day meetings.

The Sock and Buskin was the primary factor behind the many fine student productions put on the stage this past year.

Professor William Franklin used his great theatre experience in the direction of many of the plays.

The Foreign Language department moved into the theatre to some degree this year by producing two one act plays . . . one in Spanish the other in French. These plays were a fine demonstration of the knowledge gained from language courses in a practical application.

Winter Carnival Held Feb. 19

A heavy snowfall on February 19 provided a suitable setting for the annual Winter Carnival.

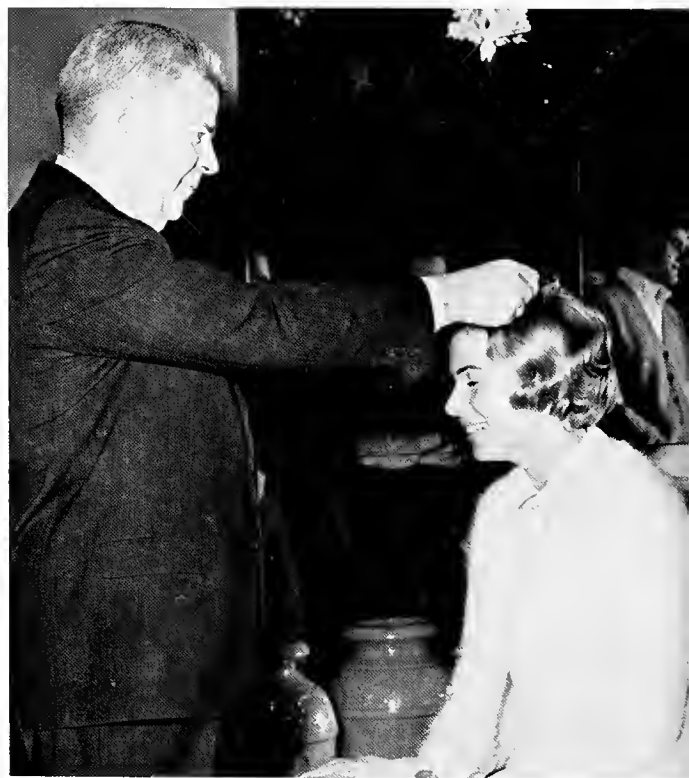

The day's activities began as the Greek organizations assembled in front of Old Main to create snow sculptures. "Beatle" a topic of great attention at this time was used by Zeta Tau Alpha to win the snow sculpture contest.

During the afternoon students participated skiing and sledding activities and also in a tug of war on the hill at Point Breeze.

Miss Barbara Lindell was crowned Snow Queen at the dance held at Phillips Hall in the evening.

Convocation Speakers and Various Music Programs Add to the College Experience

Top speakers from all fields throughout the country are brought to the Bethany campus each year as convocation speakers.

This year people such as Milton Friedman, distinguished economist from the University of Chicago, Archibald MacLeish, David Lawrence and Cecil Underwood, former governors of Pennsylvania and West Virginia respectively, were among some of the speakers.

Musical programs featured the Lettermen, Carlos Montoya, Newport Jazz All Stars and many others in addition to the fine talent on the Bethany campus.

Rockefeller girls await the governor's arrival.

Probably the most exciting day of the year was May 1, when Governor Nelson Rockefeller stopped on the Bethany campus while campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination.

Governor Rockefeller, one of the top contenders for the Republican nomination, was the main speaker for the annual Seminar In Politics, presented by the Falk Foundation Studies in Practical Politics.

Students of both Republican and Democratic leanings turned out to welcome the governor. This was probably the only convocation of the year that the students arrived an hour ahead of time in order to have a seat.

With the longest Winter in the past few years in West Virginia snow was all anyone had in their minds. It was hard to imagine that Spring would ever arrive and especially, Spring Weekend.

Well, needless to say Spring finally did come and with it Spring Weekend.

One of the highlights of the year, this year along with the AWS Carnival a dance to the music of Billy Butterfield and his orchestra was held, the annual Regatta, and a concert in the amphitheatre by the Midnight Riders were all a part of the big weekend.

This year the I.F.C. worked for an earlier rush and the abolition of the 2.0 grade point rule.

This year was one of exceptional growth and activity for Beta Gamma Chapter.

Nineteen men were initiated into the fraternity in the course of the year, and reconstruction of the annex building behind the Point Breeze Manor House was carried out to make room for the expanding chapter.

The year was begun with the traditional round of parties for the freshman women in the fall. The chapter secured a house mother, Mrs. Ruth Markley, thus allowing social use of the house on all weekends. January saw the annual Winterbreeze Formal held at the George Washington Hotel in Washington, Penna.

Honors abounded for Beta Gamma, with members elected to Gamma Sigma Kappa, Kalon, Who's Who, Sigma Tau Delta, and Beta Beta Beta. Alpha Sigs also served in editorial positions of the BETHANIAN and TOWER, on Social Committee and on school athletic teams.

At homecoming, Alpha Sigs constructed the winning fraternity float, and at the first convocation received the W. Kirk Woolery scholarship cup.

Psi Chapter of Beta Theta Pi played an active role on campus this year in various ways.

Perhaps the biggest thing the Beta's gave to the Bethany campus this year was the five starting members of the undefeated Bethany basketball team.

The basketball team captained by Phil Harrison had Rick Cipullo, Bard Hickman, Ed Blundon and Rudy Horvat, all members of Psi Chapter.

As usual the Stampeade was the highlight of the year for the Betas.

Dave Bane was Business Manager of the BETHANIAN one of the top leadership positions on campus. Like Dave, many Psi men held campus offices this past year.

After a successful rush, the brothers held a dinner in Wheeling for the new pledges. This function was followed by several sweater parties and a dinner in honor of Robert E. Lee, the deceased founder of Kappa Alpha.

The annual Old South weekend was highlighted by the Dixie Ball held on a riverboat in Pittsburgh.

The year came to a climax with the winning of the Greek Sing trophy for the fourth straight year.

The K.A.'s have several leaders on campus in the president of the S.B.O.G. and president of the I.F.C.

In sports Ihor Hoshowsky and Jeff Tindall were chosen co-captains of the Cross-country team. Jeff was also chosen co-captain of the track team as was Roy Austin on the tennis team.

Reorganization

Al Yardis talks to Dick Newcomer at a Phi Tau rush party.

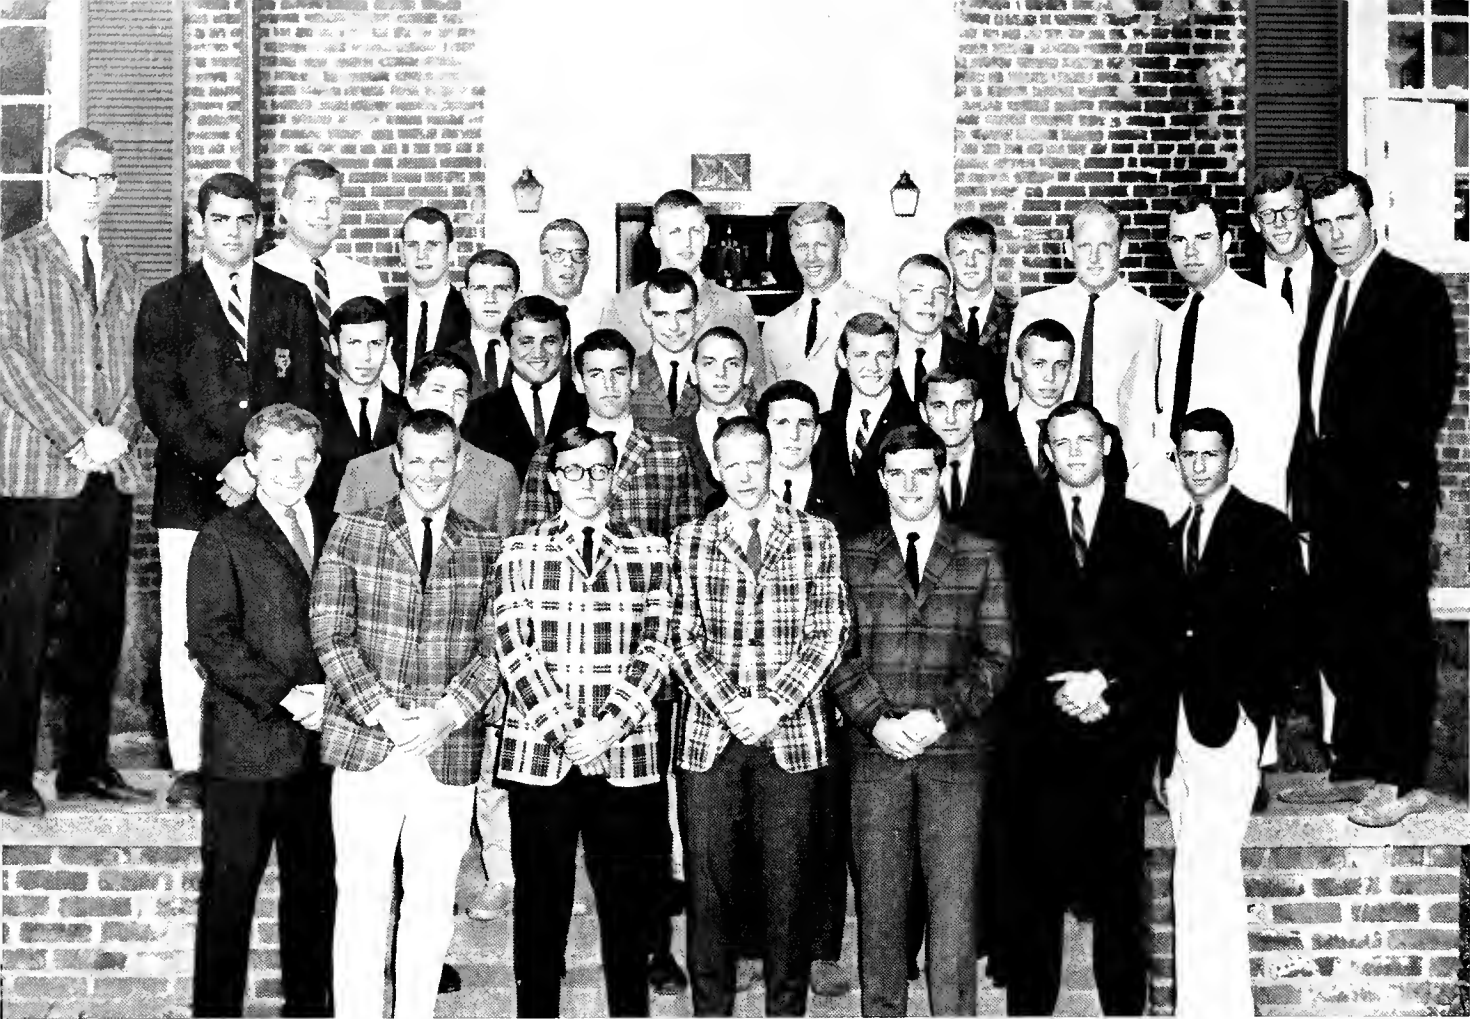

Phi Chapter of Phi Kappa Tau has undergone a year of reorganization with projected goals of increased membership, a more active alumni program, and a campaign for the "new House" fund.

Elaborate plans are underway for next year's Homecoming on October 17th with a game against Thiel. Brother Bob Goin, head Bison football coach, promises to field a fine team.

Over the past year the Phis attended the Domain conference at Penn State and the central office in Oxford, Ohio. Plans are made for the attendance of the National Convention scheduled in June for Boulder, Colorado.

Rev. Jeff Hamilton, college chaplain, is the Phi Tau advisor and will be initiated into the brotherhood early next fall.

Sig's Remain Well

OFFICERS: Andy Keene, Bob Vavrina and George Georgiades.

Still remaining perhaps the most well rounded fraternity on the Bethany campus, Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Nu continued to move forward.

The Sig's started the year by having Bill Patterson one of the tri-captains of the football team.

A great deal of work was done on the house with the addition of shutters on the exterior and new draperies and furniture on the interior.

Perhaps the highlight of the year for Sigma Nu was the spring formal held in Washington, Pa., at the George Washington Hotel. The formal was followed by a barn party which was proved to be unquestionably one of the best in a number of years.

The Spring also saw Sigma Nu athletes in the limelight with Bob Vavrina and Jerry Block both being stars on the varsity track team. "Vav" won the intermediate hurdles in the PAC and Jerry won both the 100 and 200 yard dashes.

All in all Sigma Nu had a most successful year and looks forward to an even better one next year under President George Georgiades.

The co-ordination of inter-sorority functions is the primary task of the Panhellenic Council. It establishes rush rules, rush party schedules, and works with the Inter-Fraternity Council on matters such as the All Greek Week-End. It also strives to keep inter-sorority relations on the highest plain.

This year the Panhellenic Council under the leadership of Carol White as president is initiating a Rush Book. This book similar to the booklet published by the Inter-Fraternity Council will familiarize the incoming freshman with sorority life.

Once again the Alpha Xis were socially active. In almost every organization and social function one could find the Alpha Xis participating.

Carol White was elected president of the Panhellenic Council, Sue McCormick was captain of the cheerleaders for the second straight year, and Bobbie McClung was A.W.S. Queen.

The Bethany chapter of Alpha Xi Delta also became widely known across the nation as one of its members, Mona Walters, appeared on the nationwide television show "Password."

Not only were the Alpha Xis active socially but they also won academic honors. Members of the sorority were named to Who's Who, Gamma Sigma Kappa, Kalon and took top honors at Commencement.

The Alpha Xis were not to be surpassed by the Spring Formal held at Esquire Club in Wheeling. A perfect climax to a perfect year.

Kappa Delta Achieves Excellence in Academics

The Kappa Deltas played an active part in Bethany's campus life as they provided leadership, an enjoyable social atmosphere, and intellectual achievement.

Once again excellent scholarship won the cherished Ruth Anna Bourn Scholarship Award for the women's organization with the highest grade index. The winning spirit continued into basketball season as the K.D.'s came out as the champs of the women's intramural competition.

After a successful rush, twenty-two girls were pledged who enriched activities with a slumber party, a paddle party, shoe shine sales and sandwich sales. Other social events sponsored by the organization include sweater parties, open houses, the annual Christmas party, a banquet at a local club honoring pledges, and the climactic White Rose Spring Formal held at the George Washington Hotel.

Individual members achieved many honors. Jane Bolton was chosen Phi Kappa Tau Queen, Carol McCoy was K.A. Rose, and Barb Best was a member of the Homecoming Queen Court, the Snow Queen Court, and the Alpha Sig candidate for A.W.S. Queen.

Jane Dalzell was elected "Outstanding Freshman Woman" by Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity.

The Phi Mus do a tremendous amount of work so that they may have successful rush parties.

The Phi Mu pin.

Phi Mu's Keep Active

What makes a good sorority woman? This year, fifty-four Phi Mu sisters demonstrated the necessity of four basic characteristics. The four characteristics are: grades, social graces, leadership and beauty.

Beginning with a casual sweater party, later square-dancing at the country Hoedown, social activities climaxed at the Spring Formal held in Washington.

The characteristic of scholarship was demonstrated as the Phi Mu Sorority held the Anna Ruth Bourne Scholarship Award first semester, and the pledges won the Pledge Scholarship Cup presented at the annual Greek Sing. Several members were elected to Who's Who and Gamma Sigma Kappa.

Sue Locke was elected president of AWS.

Of course, beauty must mix with learning and this characteristic was filled by Margie Kovac who was Homecoming Queen and also Alpha Sigma Phi "Sweetheart."

With these outstanding members and the unity of sisterhood, Phi Mu completed another successful year.

OFFICERS: Margie Kovac, Harriet Lewis, Judy Norton and Sue Halm.

I.M.A. Furthers Needs of Unaffiliates

The Independent Men's Association, founded in 1955 by Thomas Buerghenthal, provides a friendly atmosphere for its members.

It was founded to further the needs of the unaffiliated male student on campus.

The events of the past year include a bowling party and the annual Mother's Day banquet.

The group also won the W. Kirk Woolery Scholarship Cup for academic excellence the first semester of the school year.

OFFICERS: Walter Hunt, Albert Lubran, president, John Brown, Anthony Heller and Gary Gorby.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Board of Governors

The Student Board of Governors is supposedly the loudest and strongest voice of student representation on campus.

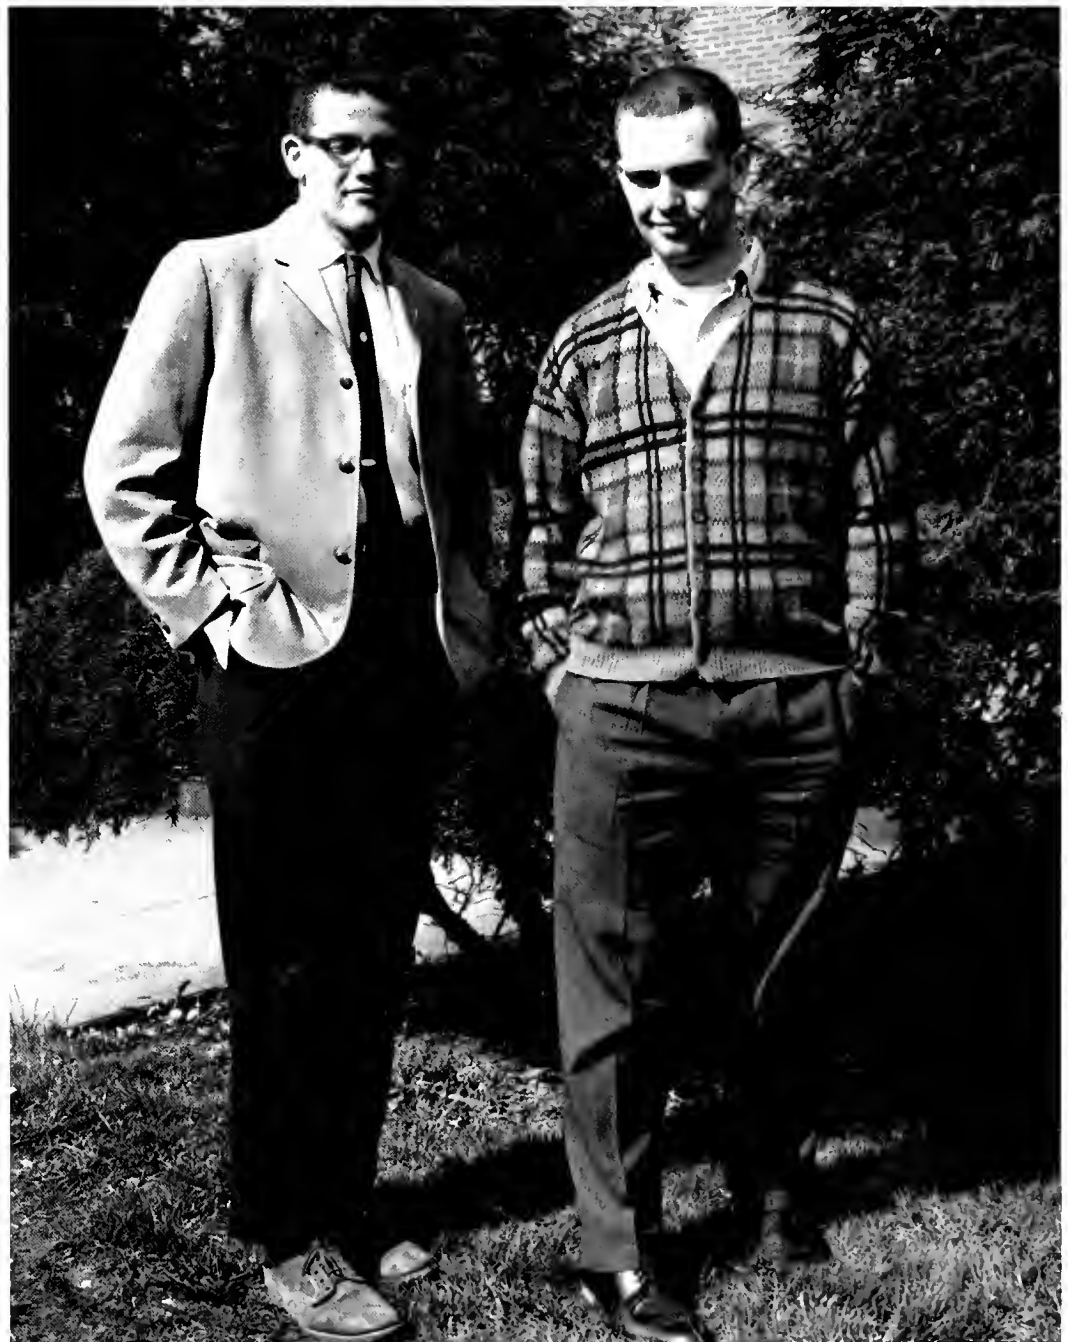

The Board works with other organizations on campus for unity and the overall benefit of the student body.

Although always active, some of the activities of this year's S.B.O.G. were not always guided in the right direction.

Representation and voice of the minority group is rarely seen in any form of government, student or otherwise. This statement was disproved by the S.B.O.G. this year. The views of the minority groups on campus were greatly supported by the S.B.O.G.

John Curran was president and Mike Frank vice president.

Members to the court are selected from the student representatives and appointed by the S.B.O.G. president. Usually although not necessarily true of this past year, only those persons with previous experience are chosen for court operations.

Court procedure is supposedly patterned after that used in regular courts of law.

Student Board of Publications

The Student Board of Publications is composed of the editors and business managers of the Tower, Bethanian and Student Handbook.

This year the board made some important decisions related to student publications which were upheld by the administration.

The board became more active this year and numerous decisions were settled in meetings.

W. A. Bliss was this year's chairman.

Social Committee

CO-CHAIRMEN: Bill Wyman, Scuff O'Roark.

The Bethany Social Committee is representative of the entire campus. Members from fraternities, sororities, and other student groups participate.

Aided by increased portions of the student activities fee and the great interest of Miss Darline Nicholson, Dean of Women, the committee has attracted top talent and student support.

This year the group brought the Lettermen, the Midnight Riders, Josh White and many other entertainers to campus.

A.W.S.

The Association of Women Students does a great deal to liven the college spirit and also to develop a sense of unity among the women students. The executive board is composed of members from each of the residence halls.

Two of the groups main functions are the A.W.S. Carnival and May Morning Breakfast.

This past year The Handbook contained illustrations of the more familiar sights around the Bethany campus.

Varsity "B"

The Varsity "B" Club, an organization of Bethany's athletic lettermen, not only provides the athletes for the playing fields but also does many other activities.

The club this year under Dick Stuck as president, was responsible for the return of freshman hazing, which although contrary to the feelings of some, has been proved to be an asset to the freshman rather than a liability.

Refreshments and programs are supplied by the organization at all home football and basketball games.

S.N.E.A.

The Student National Educational Association strives to expose its members to a better understanding of education principles and to introduce popular educating techniques.

The majority of the club's members are members of the Education Department too.

Bethanian Charges Forward

This year the Bethanian moved from the old high school size yearbook to the 9" by 12" college size book. In addition to the change in size the BETHANIAN this year introduced a sixteen page campus life section containing eight pages of full color.

Although the usual standard of work of a few proved true again this year the Editor-in-Chief feels it was well worth the nights spent working into the wee hours of the night to get the 1964 Bethanian up to the exact specifications he had planned for.

It took a lot of effort on the part of the staff to produce this year's book with not only the additional work for the additional layout problems but, also for the business manager to work overtime in order to get additional ads to meet the increased cost of the larger book.

As Editor-in-Chief I take my hat off to my staff for without them the 1964 Bethanian would never have been born.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, Lynn Barnes.

Lynn Barnes was Editor-in-Chief of the Tower this year and in this position continued to give the Bethany campus excellent news coverage of the campus activities through his media.

Mr. Taylor was advisor to the Tower the first semester during the absence of Mr. Carty.

Although Lynn was short handed as far as a staff was concerned, he continued through a greater effort on his own part to report the news as efficiently as possible.

Next year David Hobe will be the Editor-in-Chief and as such will attempt to put out a paper once a week. The paper will not be printed in its present form but probably in a mimeographed form or as a two page printed paper. The new move is to provide better coverage of current news, rather than the great number of follow-up stories that appear in the Tower presently because of the two-week publishing schedule now in practice.

Dick Stuck brings down W&J's top running back Fred Gentile.

Injuries Riddle Bisons . . .

An injury-plagued Bethany football team won only two games after winning six in 1962.

New head coach Bob Goin saw at least a half dozen key performers put out of action for one or more games throughout the season. All-PAC defensive halfback Dick Stuck led the list of front line operatives who missed one or more games during the year. Gene Shapert, Larry Yanda, Gerry Block, Bob Solar, and Norm DiClemente were other stars who saw limited action.

Tom Lewis, a senior guard from Pittsburgh, was the only member of the Bison squad to be picked for the coveted All-PAC "11." Ron Fowler, a tri-captain, along with Bill Patterson and Lewis, was a top-flight defensive end for Coach Bob Goin. Patterson was second in the PAC in pass receptions.

The highlight of the season was a stunning 24-0 upset victory over highly-touted Wayne State in the season finale at Bethany on November 16.

All-PAC lineman Tom Lewis stops an unidentified Wayne State back for minus yardage.

Fleet halfback Rod Albaugh races down the sideline en route to another Bison TD.

Bisons Regain PAC Championship

Coach Edgar Martin's Bisons completed the 1963-64 cage season with an undefeated record. Led by Captain Phil Harrison the Bisons regained the PAC championship they lost to Washington and Jefferson in 1962-63.

Harrison, twice an All-PAC selection, again led the team in rebounding and was second only to diminutive guard Rick Cipullo in scoring. Cipullo led the PAC in scoring with a 20 point average. Rick also joined Phil on the All conference team.

Bard Hickman, a fine defensive player, also managed to find time to finish third in team scoring and second in the rebounding column. Bard, a fine jumper, out rebounded all opponents he faced.

Ed Rollo and Rudy Horvat rounded out the starting five of the team Coach Martin called the best he's ever coached. Others who contributed to the 18-0 season were Fred Gardini, Ed Blundon, and Charlie Coss.

Captain Phil Harrison drives around two Wayne State players for an easy two points.

Phifer, Trafton, and Pace Lead Bisons

Bethany's Mermen, led by Bob Pace and Bob Trafton, picked up four wins and a fifth in the PAC to end the 1963-64 swimming season.

The importance of the two "Bob's" can be seen quite well in a meet at Case where Trafton and Pace won three events and set two pool records. In the PAC meet Trafton set new PAC records in the 50 yard free style and the 100 yard free style, thus ending the year on a happy note.

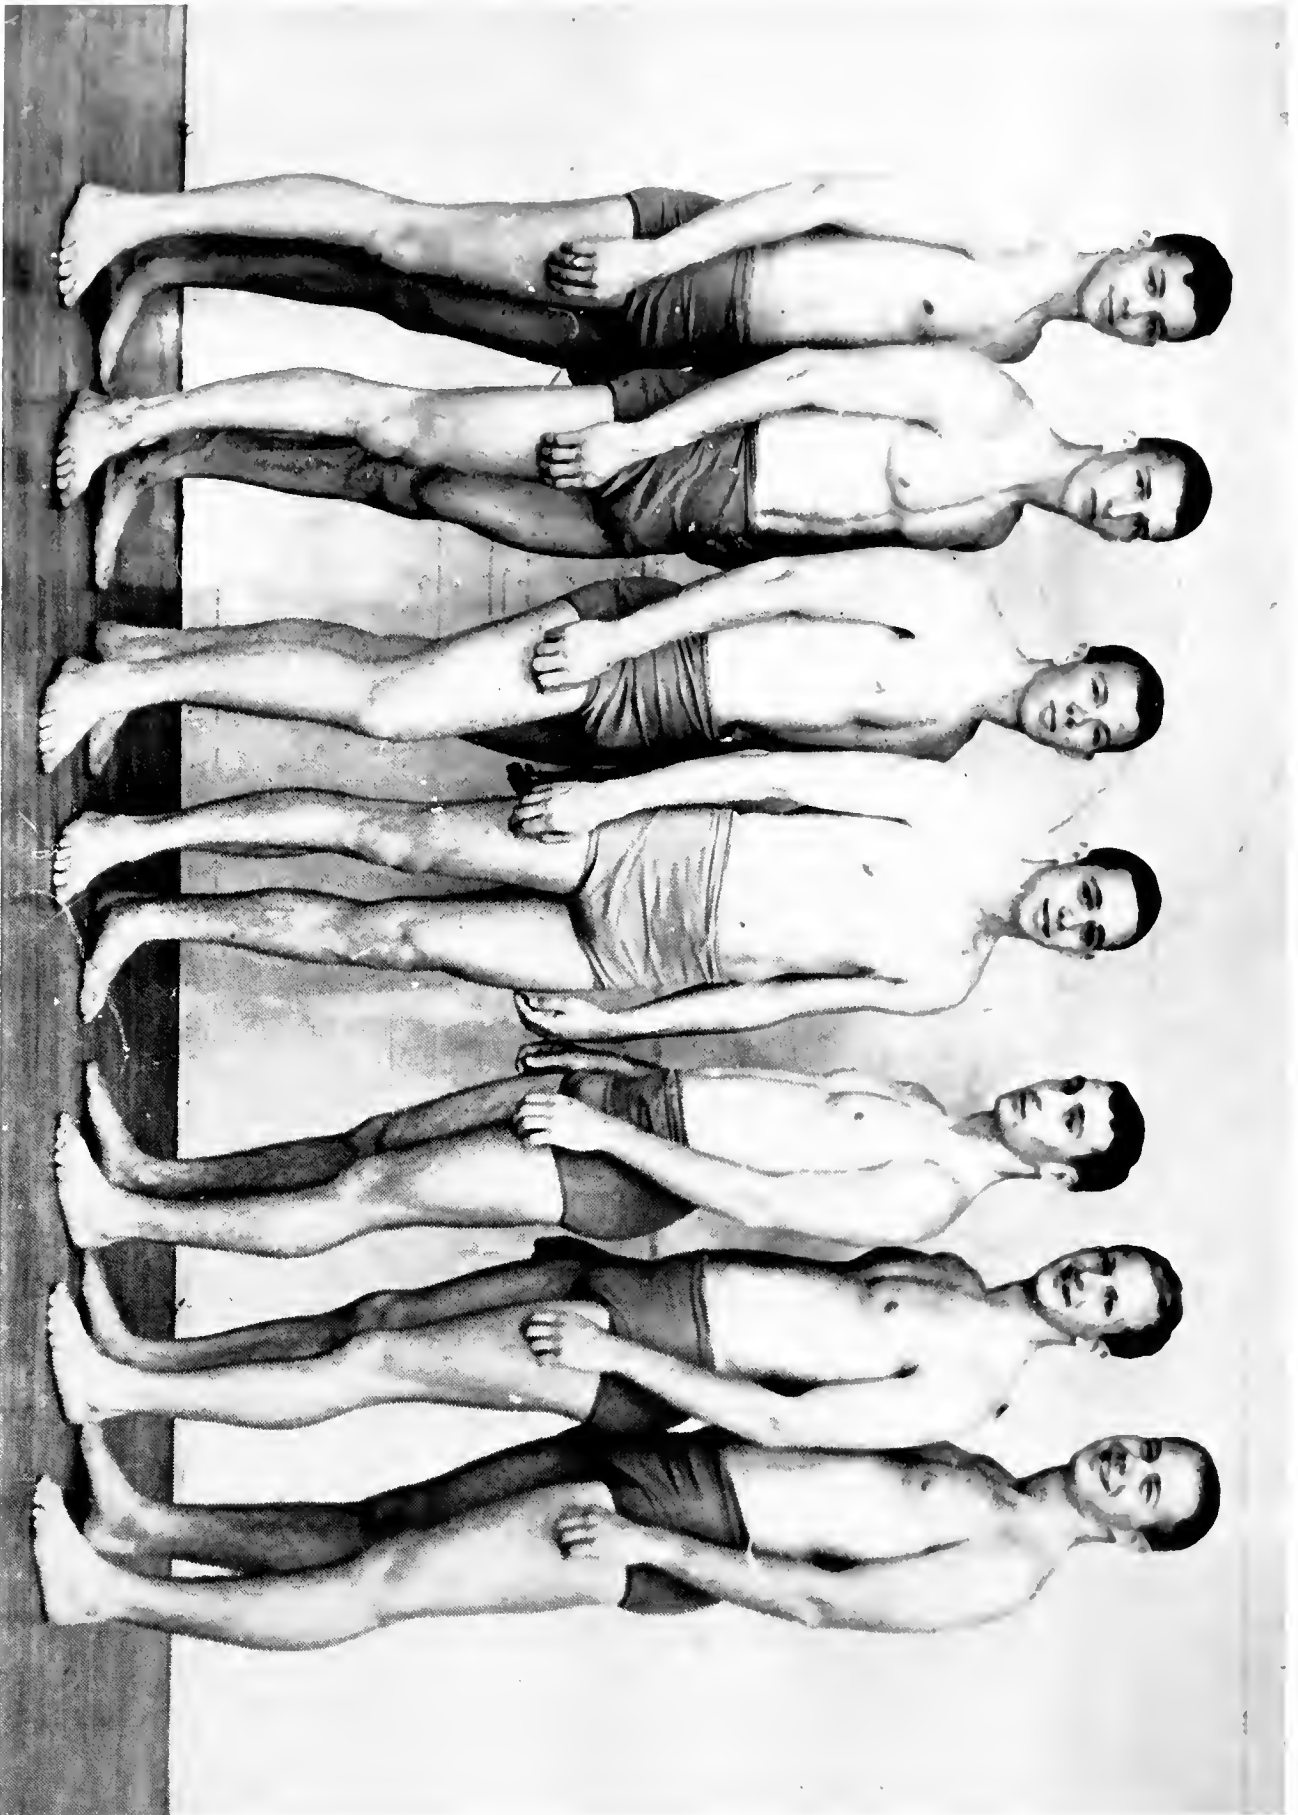

Co-captain Bill Phifer was another bright spot, as he has been for the past four years. Bill's desire and fine attitude proved to be important qualities needed in picking the team up after a loss. He is also retiring with a shelf full of PAC placques.

Other important members of the team were Bill Johnson, a senior, and Jim Forbes.

Bob Pace and Bob Trafton shake hands after a job well done at the PAC.

The linksmen captured second place in the President's Athletic Conference championship, the best showing they have made in the PAC in many years.

Tennis Team Sparkles

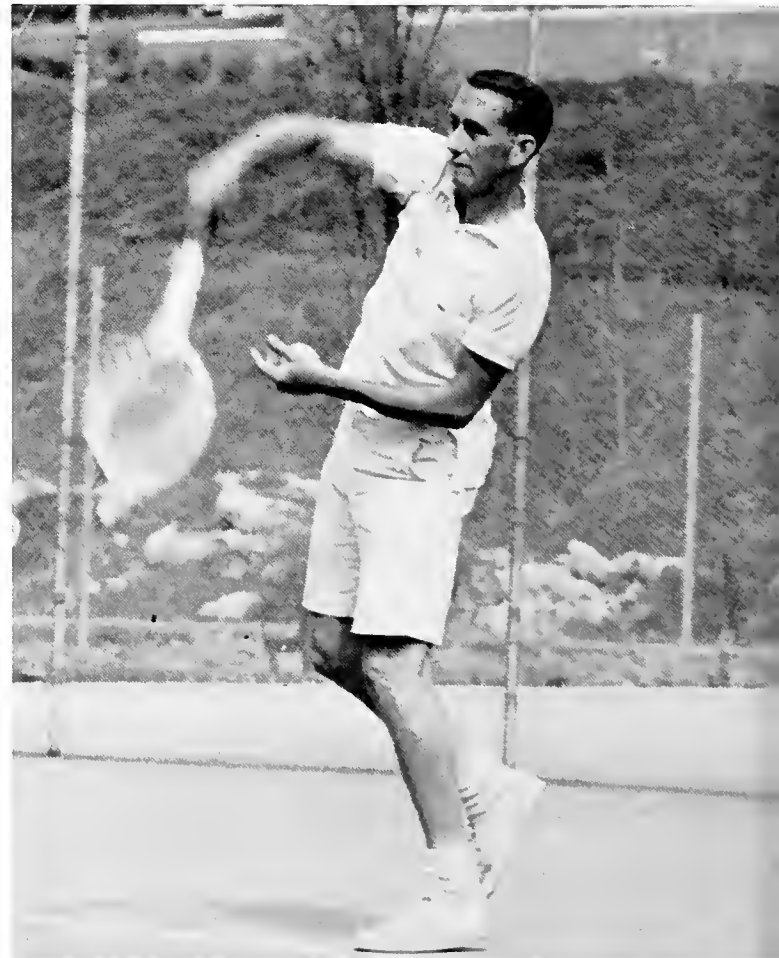

The Bethany Tennis team compiled its best record in nearly a decade during the 1964 season. Led by PAC singles champion Pete Van Camerik, the Bisons defeated all opponents. The only loss suffered during the year was to Washington and Jefferson but this defeat was avenged on the Bison home court 7-2 one week later.

Fine coaching by Mr. Peterson and Mr. Kurey was important contribution in the fine season the tennis team experienced.

Others who enjoyed a good year were seniors Dave Bane and Roger Coleman. Mike Kurey, a sophomore, also did a fine job throughout the entire season.

Weber Cops Four Wins

The Bethany nine picked up five wins during the 1964 season, with All PAC Pete Weber pitching his way to four of the five victories.

Pete, a sophomore, compiled a 1.50 ERA and turned in his finest season in a Bison uniform. Rewarded with the Most Valuable Player award, Weber definitely kept the Goinsmen from a disastrous season.

Other top performers were Bob Williams, who hit .379, and Fred Gareini with a .323 average. Steve Clayton picked up the only other Bison win, by pitching a fine game against W&J.

The highlight of the dismal season was taking a doubleheader from Scarborough's Prexies.

Moo's Continue to Be Active

Once again this year the Moo Moo Moo continued to be an asset in the way of building spirit at athletic events. The Moo's with their crazy antics always seem to get a laugh even if the team is on the wrong side of the score column.

Dick Mason is now "Big Bull" taking over from Phil Herman the middle of the year following Phil's comprehensive examinations.

Cheerleaders Help Bring Victories

This year Bethany finished second in the overall PAC Trophy competition and there is no question that every coach will attribute part of the team's success to the cheerleaders.

Under Captain Sue McCormick, who this year was in her second year as captain of the cheerleaders, the cheerleaders spent endless hours in the preparation of new cheers for the various athletic events.

The preparation is only part of the work the cheerleaders do, for after a game when you talk to one of them you can tell the effort they put forth at a game. They usually have yelled so much, they can't talk back to you after the game.

It takes a great deal of effort to get the fans to cheer at some athletic events. The fans owe the cheerleaders a great debt of gratitude for the work they did to build the spirit in order to give the men of Bethany a reason to win on the playing fields of Bethany.

Bethany's Largest

On Sunday, June seventh, Bethany College saw her largest number of seniors in the college history receive degrees. Over 145 seniors were graduated at the One Hundred Twenty-third Commencement exercises of Bethany College.

The hot and humid day was one filled with both joy and sadness for the seniors. Joy at the thought that each of us had finally made the big day . . . and sadness at the thought of leaving the many friends we had made during our four years at Bethany.

Graduating Class

The day started with the Baccalaureate service in the Bethany Memorial Church.

Commencement in the Alumni Field House saw Mr. Arthur Langlie, Chairman of the Board of the McCall Corporation and former governor of Washington, give the commencement address. Governor Langlie's speech, "The Priceless Ingredients," was centered around eight rules for the continuous renewal of a democratic society as it exists in the United States.

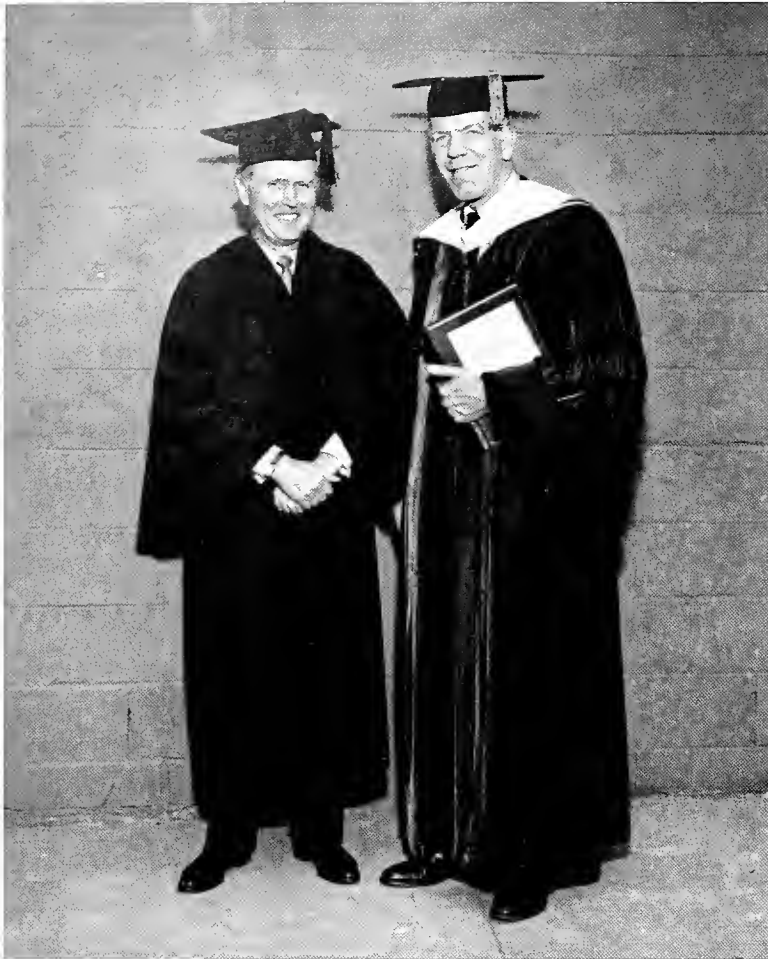

As the graduates left the field house for the mad scramble to find their diplomas and depart on a new pathway, the rain that had been expected all day finally came. Even nature cooperated to give us a perfect day for our last day at Bethany College.
